[address]

('the Author' which expression shall, where the context admits, include the Author's executors, administrators, heirs and assigns and in cases of joint authorship the individual persons constituting the Author. In cases of joint-authorship all sums that may become due to the Author under the provisions of this Agreement shall be divided and paid separately and in equal parts to each of the individual persons constituting the Author).

Whereas Edinburgh University Press Ltd of The Tun - Holyrood Road, 12 (2f) Jackson's Entry, Edinburgh EH8 8PJ, Scotland ('the Publishers' which expression shall, where the context admits, include the Publishers' successors in business and assigns) intends to publish a literary work at present entitled

Cold War Legacies: Systems, Theory, Aesthetics

('the work') under the editorship of Ryan Bishop and John Beck ('the Editor'), the Author agrees:

1. to contribute to the work a chapter as submitted in accordance with the Publishers' 'Notes and Guidelines for Contributors'.

2. as delivered one copy of the contribution (which shall be as a disk, file, or other electronic form) together with the originals of any illustrations and that neither the Editor nor the Publishers shall be held responsible for accidental loss or damage by fire or otherwise while the work is in their custody or in the course of preparation other than loss or damage arising from the Editor's or Publishers' own negligence.
3. to read and to correct the proofs of the contribution if requested to do so and to return them to the Editor within fourteen days of their receipt.
4. that the Author owns and shall retain copyright in the contribution.
5. that the Publishers shall have the exclusive licence to publish and themselves to license the publication of the contribution in all editions of the work in all languages in volume form and in any other form or medium including all forms of electronic publication now known or hereafter invented, on-demand or broadcasting service, and for the legal term of copyright throughout the world notwithstanding which it is agreed that the Author shall retain the right to include the contribution or any part thereof in published collections of his or her own work provided due acknowledgements are made to the work, the Editor and the Publishers save that the Publishers reserve the right to charge a fee for the reproduction of typography from the work.
6. (a) that the work will be included in a repertoire which the Publishers have mandated the Publishers' Licensing Society to make available to the Copyright Licensing Agency so that the said Agency may grant non-exclusive licences to users, institutions and individuals to reproduce by photocopying and/or other means now or hereafter known literary works published by the Publishers.
(b) that the Copyright Licensing Agency will divide the proceeds from such copying between the Editor, the Author and the Publishers, and (c) the Author will receive his or her share of such proceeds through the Authors' Licensing and Collecting Society in accordance with its standard terms and conditions.
7. that the licence granted herein shall be conditional on
(a) the Publishers sending the Author on publication:

one complimentary copy of the print edition of the work
OR
one complimentary copy of the ebook edition of the work and one complimentary copy of a digital offprint of the Author's chapter (delete as appropriate to indicate your choice of print or ebook plus offprint).

The Author may purchase further copies for personal use at 20% discount from the list price.

(b) the Publishers paying the Author 50% of all sums received in respect of

(i) Serialization of the contribution before or after publication

(ii) The production or reproduction of the contribution or any part thereof in books, periodicals or by film micrography or photocopying for the purposes of digest, anthology, or otherwise.

(c) the Author's right if all editions of the work have been out of print for one year or more to request and to receive a reversion of all rights granted by the Author herein but without prejudice to the rights of the Author, the Editor, the Publishers and any third party in respect of any arrangement properly entered into by the Publishers with any such third party during the term of this Licence.

8. and hereby warrants to the Publishers and their assigns and licensees that the contribution is in no way whatever a violation of any existing copyright, or of any right of privacy, or other personal, proprietary or statutory right, that it contains nothing obscene, libellous or defamatory or otherwise unlawful, that all statements contained therein purporting to be fact are to the best of the Author's knowledge and belief true and that the Author has the full power to make this Agreement and will indemnify the Publishers against any loss, injury or damage (including any legal costs or expenses and any compensation costs and disbursements paid by the Publishers in accordance with legal advice to compromise or settle any claim) occasioned to the Publishers in consequence of any claim alleging that the chapter contains any infringement of copyright or anything of a libellous character or otherwise occasioned to the Publishers in consequence of any breach of this warranty.

9. that the Author has obtained permission and paid, or will obtain permission and pay, fees required to include any copyright material in the contribution.
